

SPECIAL NOTICE.

CARD OF THANKS.
I desire by this means to tender my sincere thanks to the priests of the various parishes who so faithfully ministered to my sister, the late Harriet A. Saunders, to the pastor and choir of St. Augustine's R. C. Church for their services during her illness, to the officers and teachers of the public schools, and to the various associations to which she belonged for their many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy, and the numerous friends who have in every way offered assistance and consolation. My recent bereavement, also to the undertakers, Messrs E. R. James & Co., for their prompt and efficient service.

"DUCKY HOLMES" FATE.
Up to Recommendation of District Attorney Baker.

Upon the recommendation of District Attorney Baker largely depends the fate of "Ducky Holmes," who is at the District Jail under death sentence for the murder of May Hamilton. May 25 is the date set for the execution of Holmes, whose real name is Henry L. Schriffoles, but Attorney James S. Easby-Smith and P. R. Hilliard, who were assigned by the court to defend him, have asked that he be pardoned.

Their application for the pardon was sent to the District Attorney and was referred by the pardon attorney to District Attorney Baker. The district attorney has all the papers in the case and will probably raise the case once. As soon as he forwards his recommendation to the Attorney General the case will be laid before President Taft. Many persons in the Baltimore and Washington and the members of the jury which tried Holmes' case signed the petition for clemency.
